NORTHERN TRIBUNE.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF CHEBOYGAN.

THURSDAY, MARCH 5, 1885.

THE CITY.

Attend the public meeting Saturday night.

Sheriff Cross boasts of one boarder at his popular hotel.

The thermometer stood at zero at 7 o'clock this morning.

The Negligee Club held their regular dancing party Monday evening.

S. H. Taylor returned home Tuesday night from a business trip to Detroit.

Stop at Rapp & Lapres and examine those 50 cent all wool scarlet underwear.

Sam Rindskopf, brother of the proprietors of the Star Clothing House, is in town.

Cleveland is inaugurated, but the Blaine banner still waves over the Tribune office.

Charley Moore is experimenting with an apparatus to heat his place of business with hot water.

The large wolf that Dr. Perrin received last week now adorns the establishment of C. W. Moore.

We are under obligations to Minor S. Newell, Commissioner of State Land office, for his annual report.

Rev. W. G. Clark, of the Baptist church, preached at Gaylord Sunday last and returned home Monday evening.

The Star Clothing House is opening up their spring goods and will make their announcement next week.

John Murphy is circulating a petition to be appointed keeper of the range lights when a change is made.

Second quarterly meeting next Sabbath at the M. E. Church, The Presiding Elder, Rev. L. P. Davis will be present.

Rev. Wm. Putnam, of Forest, occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church on Sunday last, preaching both morning and evening.

Cheboygan county has no territory to lose, neither can we see any necessity for a new county out of the territory proposed.

Father DeSmidt held services at Black River on Sunday last, consequently there was no services at St. Mary's Church in this place on that day.

Capt. N. B. Mason has given up his school in Hebron township, and after taking a trip to Ohio, will begin putting his brickyard in shape for the season's work.

Miss Annie L. Benson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. S. F. Howie, for the past two or three months, left Wednesday morning for her home at Walkerton, Ont.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. M. Metivier is improving quite rapidly. He came down from his farm Saturday and remained with his daughter, Mrs. Capt. Bouchard, until Tuesday.

Sumner is the name proposed for the new county that will not be. The petitioners named it Hampton to give our Representative a little taffy, but Charley's extreme modesty forbade it.

Read President Frost's call for a public meeting. It is a matter that interests every citizen and prompt and decisive steps must be taken if we wish to retain our present county limits intact.

Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey and the baby left Saturday morning for Springfield, Ohio, on a visit to friends and relatives. Their daughter, Miss Edith, who has been spending the winter in Springfield will return with them.

If Cheboygan does not wish to lose a valuable slice of territory some action must be taken to thwart the organization of the proposed new county. If anything is to be done it must be done at once as the measure is under full headway and will be a law in a very few more days unless it meets with some opposition.

We have it from what we think is good authority that the steamer Minnie M., owned by the Escanaba and Lake Michigan Transportation Co., will be placed on the route between here and Sault Ste. Marie upon the opening of navigation. She is a comparatively new boat, and registers Star 1, and while not very large she is first class in every respect, and it is claimed has a speed sixteen miles an hour.

The Detroit Daily Times has suspended.

James Workman went to Detroit yesterday morning.

The Democratic caucus will be held to-morrow night.

Henry Rindskopf came home from his trip to Detroit Tuesday night.

Fresh fish at Sammons & Corlett's fish market at four cents per pound.

The township of Munro made the first return of tax roll to the County Treasurer.

The Sault route by present indications will have four first class boats on it the coming season.

A postoffice has been established at Oqueseo, Presque Isle county, with Alex. Jarvis as postmaster.

Marbles and tops now occupies the small boys' attention. A sure sign that spring is near at hand.

President Frost's proclamation, in regard to liquor selling on election day will be found in this issue.

Robert Robinson left on the train Friday morning for Buffalo, N. Y., expecting to be absent a week or ten days.

Mr. M. Sweet, of Flint, State Commissioner of Swamp Lands and Trespass agent, is a guest at the Grand Central.

Hank Todd is refitting the store just vacated by Ezra Martin and will open up next week with a stock of fruit and confectionery.

That little Democratic rooster that a Chicago friend sent J. P. Sutton looked very cold and lonesome on that gentleman's hat yesterday.

Barney Brogan, treasurer of Inverness township, collected $4,040 out of his tax roll, which amounted to $4,600. The delinquents are all non-residents.

The time for paying taxes throughout the state has been extended 20 days by the Legislature. The most of the township treasurers of Cheboygan county were ready to settle up.

Tom Navin, known as the "kid" mayor of Adrian, was arrested at New Orleans Saturday, after dodging the officers for three years. He claims he was on his way home to stand trial.

If Bob Ingersoll could gaze on the figure that stands in the entrance of the Devil's Kitchen in Narcisse Hamel's painting of that noted place, we believe he would be a firm believer in hades.

John R. Eggerman has invented a new process for killing hogs, which he claims will take all the blood from the animal, leaving the carcass perfectly white and clean. We understand Mr. Eggerman has applied for a patent.

Hon. Jacob Walton returned home Tuesday from his visit to Lansing and Ann Arbor. The results of his trip cannot be summed up until the city charter bill comes up. He seems to be satisfied the bill will not be passed in its present shape.

The attention of builders is directed to the advertisement of the Board of Water Commissioners asking for proposals for finishing the pump house building for a residence. It is proposed to add a second story and use the same as a residence for the engineer of the works.

A Lansing dispatch of the 2nd says: "The prospect for the renomination of Judge Cooley by the Republican state convention appears favorable. Members returning here to-day from their homes say that in some cases their county conventions have instructed for Cooley, and in others that the delegates chosen will all support Cooley."

John McGinn had some very fine apples stored in the basement of the bank block, and was in the habit of leaving the door unlocked while he was at dinner. The small boy was not long in tumbling to these two facts, and the way them apples disappeared was a caution. John was not long in getting "onto" the racket, and the picnic of the juveniles has ceased.

The pupils of St. Mary's school to show their appreciation of the kindly aid extended by our citizens in the rebuilding of their school house will give an entertainment on Monday the 16th inst. to the patrons and friends of the school, and while all are invited those who extended the substantial aid are particularly requested to be present, as it is the only way in which the children can return their thanks to those who so generously contributed. The hour for the entertainment has not been decided upon as yet, but we will announce it next week.

Register Saturday if your name is not already on the list.

Wednesday was pension day, and the soldiers kept the County Clerk on the jump.

The Democratic slate is made up for village officers. It will be busted next Monday.

Republican caucus for the nomination of candidates for the different officers at the council room to-night.

Jud Smith, formerly a prominent business man of this place, and now a resident of Strongsville, Chippewa county, is in town.

Adolphus Woods, who resides on the east side, sliced his great toe off while making roads at Pat McDonald's camp yesterday.

The members of W. W. Watts Post G. A. R. of Indian River give an oyster supper and hold a camp fire on this, Thursday, evening.

The masquerade which was to have taken place Tuesday night, at Zora's Hall, was postponed—on account of the weather, perhaps.

By the tone of our Mentor correspondence we should judge that the people of that township do not think much of the scheme of organizing a new county. Sensible people.

The ministers will hold their next meeting with Rev. Mr. Westgate. Discussion to be opened by Rev. Mr. Curtis. Topic "The Evangelical Doctrines of the New Testament not incompatible with the highest culture."

The following is a list of Notaries Public for this county appointed by the Governor: Jacob Walton, Herbert G. Grayes, Norman W. Lyons, H. W. McArthur, W. H. Watkins, Ephraim Smith, John C. Catham, Merritt Chandler, A. J. Paddock.

We hear that a well known gentleman is contemplating going into the poultry business on an extensive scale in this place. We cannot see why it would not be a paying investment with poultry selling at 18 cents per pound and eggs at 30 cents a dozen.

Chas. E. Nuite, left Saturday morning for Detroit. John E. Clark left Monday morning and will join Mr. Nuite at Detroit and the two will proceed to Spanish River, Ontario, to look over the pine in that section. They will probably be absent about six weeks.

The store room in the Howell block, formerly occupied by C. L. Smyth & Co. as a furniture store is being fitted up as a restaurant and will be occupied by Mrs. Smith, who has been chief cook at the Grand Central Hotel for the past year. It will be opened to the public in about ten days.

Matt W. King, treasurer of the town of Burt, was in town on Monday. Matt was a member of the 6th Ohio cavalry and opposed secession in '61, but now advocates secession and division, and is sanguine that Indian River will be the capital city of the new county to be formed of the seceding towns.

The Bill to incorporate the city of Cheboygan was reported back to the House by the committee on municipal corporations on Friday without recommendations. The bill was ordered printed, referred to the committee on the whole, and placed on the general order. On Saturday a motion was made to reconsider the vote by which the bill was ordered printed, but the motion was laid on the table.

The masquerade party at the roller rink last Thursday evening was a success in all respects except in the number of maskers. Some very striking costumes were worn and all seemed to enjoy themselves. Miss Fannie Smyth, captured the handsome gold medal for the finest ladies costume, and Miss Ella Jordan the second prize, a season ticket. For the finest gents' costume Frank Rollo was awarded the silver medal and Will Gero the season ticket for the most comical gents costume.

A man employed in McIntosh's camp met with a singular and painful accident one day last week. He was engaged in loading logs when something gave way and the chain flew around with great force, the hook catching him in the rear of the knee joint, penetrating to the bone. He had a ticket for treatment in the sanitarium but preferred being treated at his own home on the east side of the river. Dr. Berdan is attending him and although the wound is a painful one his speedy recovery is anticipated.

Do you breathe easy under the Democratic administration?

Two camps came down yesterday and the sash brigade is quite numerous on the streets.

Rapp & Lapres have an announcement in this issue that interests everybody. Read it and give the gentleman a call.

We have had some delightful weather the past week, but we don't propose to say too much in its favor for fear it will jump the track.

Will Clark, wife and mother left last night for Celon, in the southern part of the state, where they in future will make their home.

We hear that the sum of $30 was realized at the dance at the Fountain House Monday night for the benefit of Sammy Clark. He deserves it.

There is a report that the propeller St. Joseph and another boat, whose name we did not learn, will run between this port and Chicago in opposition to the Northern Michigan Line.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Conkila left yesterday for northern Michigan points, to strike terror to the hearts of several parties who are engaged in selling liquor without license. —Bay City Tribune.

Mr. Jas. A. Crosby, of New York, a guest at the Grand Central, was taken violently ill during last night. Dr. Perrin promptly responded a telephone call, and soon made him comfortable.

We are pleased to note that the suggestion of THE TRIBUNE in regard to organizing a hook and ladder company has been acted upon, and the council at its last meeting granted a petition to that effect.

There is something radically wrong about the mail between this place and Point St Ignace. None of the St. Ignace papers of last week have been received here yet and a letter mailed there on Thursday last did not reach here until Monday.

County Clerk Hunt was the recipient of a box of Golden Rod cigars from H. W. Bradley Tuesday, and generously passed them around among the TRIBUNE force. They are A 1 smokers, and Bradley, the manufacturer, has a right to be proud of them.

The travelling public will regret to learn that Capt. E. A. Bouchard has severed his connection with the Messenger. He is one of the most popular and obliging steamboat men on the lakes and his many friends will hope too soon hear of him on some good boat in this vicinity.

The officers made a raid on several houses of ill-repute last Thursday night and gathered in seven soiled doves and three male bipeds. The trial before Justice Sutton called together the usual motley crowd. They all succeeded in paying their fines and went forth to sin again.

Negotiations have been going on for some time in regard to placing the fine side-wheel steamer John A. Dix on the route between Cheboygan and the Sault. She has been running out of Chicago as an excursion boat for the past three seasons and if she plys between these two places will make the round trip every day.

Rev. W. G. Clark, of the Cheboygan Baptist church, will preach at the school house at the usual hours, morning and evening, Sunday next. We trust he may be accorded a good congregation, as he bears the reputation of being a minister of high talents and zealous in the cause of Christ. —Gaylord Herald, Feb. 26.

At the annual village election, which occurs on Monday, trustees are to be elected in the places of Robinson, Blake, and McArthur, whose terms expire this spring. There is also other the officers President, Clerk, Treasurer, Assessor and Street Commissioner. The only fight is over the office of Street Commissioner, and for that position there is fully a baker's dozen pulling the wires.

The Saginaw Courier says: "They say there is considerable log stealing in the vicinity of Clare, and one gentleman interested in lumbering there relates a funny circumstance. He says two men were set to watch a certain lot of logs and they got out a pack of cards and went to playing 'seven up' on one of the biggest logs, and got so interested that one of the log thieves came along and hatched on to a dog which he had driven into the end of the log and drew it out of the bark, leaving the fellows still playing on the empty shell. The story looks bogus but it has the true 'ring.'"
